2) Text in the second paragraph on page 51 is revised as follows:

“Based on preliminary data from FARMER projects, the average off-road equipment project cost FARMER is funding is $77,027. For a per project cost of $77,027, the first two years of FARMER can fund up to 2,012 agricultural equipment replacement projects. For a conservative estimate of total emission reductions achieved through this measure, staff assumed all projects would be funded at the average project funding levels of $77,027.”
