

A Conference on: Air Quality, International Trade & Transportation – Challenges & Solutions

Maritime interests, California ports, government agencies and others will convene in San Pedro to identify efforts to improve air quality at California ports and to discuss collaborative strategies to do more.

Save these dates! September 9-10, 2004

Participation in this important conference will be limited, so register early. Registration information will be available at www.pmsaship.com and elsewhere beginning in May.

Sponsored by –

A Conference on: Air Quality, International Trade & Transportation Challenges & Solutions

September 9-10

Marina San Pedro Hotel
2800 Villa Cabrillo Marina
San Pedro, California

Sponsored by –

Pacific Merchant Shipping Association, Pacific Maritime Association, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, California Air Resources Board, Port of Los Angeles, Port of Long Beach, Port of Oakland, Port of San Francisco, The Journal of Commerce and Pacific Shipper.

