Notice of Decision

Project Title: Adoption of Amendments to the California Consumer Products Regulations and Test Method 310

Project Location: Statewide

Public Meeting Date: November 18, 2010
Agenda Item 10-10-7

Project Description: The amendments to the Consumer Products Regulation set new or lower volatile organic compound (VOC) limits for a number of consumer product categories. For several categories, prohibitions were adopted on the use of certain toxic air contaminants, compounds with higher global warming potentials, and certain surfactants that are toxic to aquatic species. Amendments were also adopted to ARB Test Method 310 to specify procedures to determine aromatic compound content in certain products.

Approved By: Air Resources Board
Executive Order # R-11-011
Dated: September 29, 2011

This notice is to advise that ARB, as the lead agency, has approved the above described regulatory action on September 29, 2011 and has determined that the project will not have a significant adverse impact on the environment.

In accordance with CEQA and ARB's certified regulatory program, ARB prepared an environmental analysis as part of the Staff Report: Initial Statement of Reasons (Staff Report) for the proposed regulatory action. The Staff Report identified no significant adverse environmental effects, and no comments were received identifying any significant environmental issues pertaining to this item.

No mitigation measures, findings, or statement of overriding considerations were adopted for this project because the regulation will not have a significant adverse impact on the environment.

The copy of the environmental analysis included in the Staff Report and the written responses to comments included in the Final Statement of Reasons are available at the ARB rulemaking webpage at: <http://www.arb.ca.gov/regact/2010/cp2010/cp2010.htm>
